Student Life

BSU Director Candace Myers explains all that WCC's BSU has to offer to Cindy Glaze.

A group of freshman guys take the stage with their version of a great 50's hit.

Freshmen sit and attempt to understand the pre-registration process.

The upperclassmen waitresses take a break to enjoy the entertainment.

Mrs. Pam Jones and Mrs. Bonny Savelle work hard preparing banana splits for the freshmen.

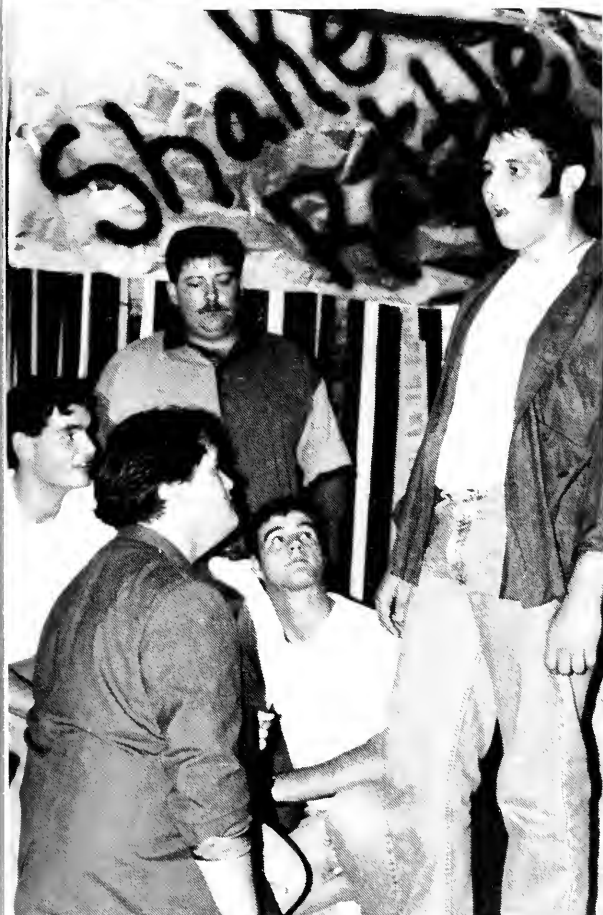

Freshman Faze

Dr. Koober (top) is explaining a music theory concept to Danny Davis.

Dr. Dyer explains what a "King" is to Honor student.

Heather Stevenson listens intently on how to fill out the registration forms.

A group of upperclassmen entertain the incoming freshman with a 50's hit!

Survival Weekend

Survival Weekend began the week before classes started for the Fall trimester of WCC. It was sponsored by the Baptist Student Union (BSU), mainly for the new freshmen and transfers.

During the weekend, the new students went to various churches around Hattiesburg to find a new church home while attending WCC. Many of the pastors of the churches came and spoke to the new students about what their church had to offer college students. Also, there were many fun-filled games that let the students get to know each other.

Freshman Rick LaForte and David Rhiner try to pass the lifesaver one to another to help their team to victory.

Junior Laura Burnett just got soaked with ice water from the coolers of the BSU.

Freshmen Angela Jones, Alyssa Hurst, juniors Tonya Pound and Phil Keller, and seniors Boyd Herrington and Jay Sims enjoy the outdoor food prepared by the cafeteria workers.

Freshman Jeff Jeffers, juniors Thomas Edwards and Wayne Pierce, and seniors Boyd Herrington and Ken Nobles lift BSU President, senior Brian Tarum, up, over, and into the water fountain in the flower garden.

Jason Crider, freshman, dives for the ball during the volleyball game, but misses and hits the mud instead.

Freshman, Laurie Williamson decides that serving a handful of mud is more exciting than serving the ball.

Senior Micah Necaise and junior Tracy Switzer playfully toss an innocent female by-stander into the mud pit.

Mud Bowl '93

Senior Bill Goldman and freshman Amanda Greer are having a friendly wrestling match.

The Mud Bowl is sponsored by the Student Government Association (SGA). It is an annual event taken place during the first trimester, previously known as Hydro-Mania.

The activities for this year's Mud Bowl included a volleyball game, tug-of-war match, slip-n-mud slide competition, water gun fight, and a water balloon fight. The slip-n-mud slide competition was particularly special because it was judged by the Hattiesburg Fire Department.

Everyone had an exciting fun-filled afternoon getting down and dirty with their new-found friends.

Sophomore Don Keenum, accidentally takes a fall and has a muddy landing, but keeps on smiling.

Lynn McShea, sophomore, tugs with all her might in the tug-of-war battle.

WCC TAKES HUBFEST

Crusaders get involved in city wide event.

Hattiesburg's Hubfest '93 attracted about 60,000 people and proved to be an exciting day for one and all. It proved to be the largest turnout and have the most venders ever.

William Carey had three participants: BSU Coke and Cookie booth, PBL Italian booth, and WCC Admissions/Recruiting booth.

William Carey also had five musical groups to entertain the crowd on the Gospel stage: The Call, Coram Deo, and Proclamation from the BSU, also, Carpenter's Wood and the guitar group representing the music department.

In the picture to the right, Thomas Edwards, one of the singers in the Coram Deo, is on stage at Hubfest.

Freshman Gretchen Rath, a member in the group Proclamation, stated "Hubfest was really great. Even though I wasn't able to stay very long, I enjoyed being a part of the excitement."

Senior Don Scofield uses his talent on the bongos while performing with the William Carey guitar group.

Seniors Jennifer Hodge, Kenne Morrison, and junior Louise Stewart are serving spaghetti as a fund-raiser at the PBL Italian booth.

BSU Director Geraldine Moore prepares for the fair and college bazaar that was donated to the school by the Hammill family.

Sophomore Brian Buchman and junior Zeke Guin bear the sun to perform with the guitar ensemble.

The Call, the BSU's praise band give a rousing performance. Their members include seniors Ken Nobles on guitar, Traci Stovall, a singer, Theresa Sider, a singer, Emily Cain, a singer, Brian Tatum, a singer, juniors Phil Keller, a singer, Ben Caston, a singer, Wayne Pierce on the drums, freshmen Gretchen Rath, a singer, and Jennifer Donohoo on keyboard.

SGA president, senior Macon Phillips, welcomes everyone to the SGA Back to School Party.

At the SGA party, Carey students gather around and enjoy the fun and fellowship.

"Yes, the party is here!" The BSU sign typifies the festive spirit of the night.

At the BSU Back to School Party, senior Jennifer Shearon looks at a collage of pictures from Survival Weekend.

The Student Government Association advertised the Back to School Party at the cafeteria.

Carey Parties for Excitement

The Baptist Student Union (BSU) and the Student Government Association (SGA) sponsored Carey Back to School Parties. Each party was designed to inform freshmen about each organization in a festive atmosphere. In addition, the parties gave a chance for everyone to become reacquainted.

Freshman Alyssa Hurst stated about the SGA party, "It was fun, and Lisa Magee can sing." The SGA had lots of food, fun, and entertainment that included senior Lisa Magee singing "I Will Always Love You."

"It was awesome!" quoted senior David Thurman about the BSU party. The entertainment at the BSU party included the Worship Team from First Baptist Church of Hattiesburg. They performed many songs. Furthermore, many different representatives from different churches in the area came to offer their invitations from their respective churches to the students of Carey.

Senior Eric Hattaway refreshes himself from one of the BSU cups (filled with Coke) given away that night.

At the BSU party, the worship team from First Baptist Church came to entertain the audience.

Juniors, Todd Stewart, Ben Caston, and Brian Bedsole, discuss the night's events while enjoying the free food.

Carey students enjoy their swim i front of Lawrence Hall.

Shown is the Carey Lake in front of Thomas Business Building.

Not even the wildlife can get away from the flooding.

Freshman, Ryan Hayes takes a raining stroll from the cafeteria to his dorm.

Simply Speaking

Too Much Rain

“When it raining in Hattiesburg, you can bet that it is flooding at Carey.” Daphonie Moulder William Carey definitely has a problem when it comes to drainage of rain water. Certain parts of the campus turn into ponds when a shower comes into the atmosphere. In front of Thomas Business Building across to Bass Dorm and up to Tuscan Avenue becomes one huge lake. Also, in front of Lawrence and Crawford Halls became the Carey Swimming pool for a few of the Students after a raining spell.

So until we solve the drainage problem enjoy it by taking part in the fun of wading to class and swimming to supper after a hardy rain. And don't worry about putting on those brand new rain boots you bought just save them and trade them in for some waders.

Senior Christy Barton and freshmen Dee Dee Fortenberry take part in the egg race of the second annual Crusader Challenge Games.

Sader fans sophomores Suzanne Dubose and Tobi Kinder, freshman Gretchen Rath, and senior Bobby Daniels stand up for their pride for the Sadlers.

Ross Hall used the Looney Toon cartoon as the theme to decorate their dorm for the Battle of the Dorms.

Carey Crusaders

Ready To Compete

Homecoming is a time to renew old acquaintances, to relive old memories, and to also create new ones. Homecoming is celebrated during the second week of November 1993.

Many festivities are held during the three-day celebration. The Student Government Organization (SGA) and the Alumni Association sponsor many activities. The SGA holds the Crusader Games, which many organizations and clubs participated in to show their homecoming spirit. Many activities are held including: The Tip-off party, which is a semi-pep rally to introduce the basketball players and cheerleaders; a Fall Carnival, which each club or organization raises money for themselves; and a tail-gate party to end the Homecoming weekend.

The Alumni Association holds many events for the alumni during Homecoming for example the 1953 Class Reunion Dinner, Alumni Showcase and Coffee House, Miss. Womens College Reunion Breakfast (1906-1940) and (1946-1953), Annual Awards Luncheon, and many, many, more.

Homecoming is an exciting time for one and all.

Junior Lydia Rutledge prepares her pie for some unlucky person.

The winner of the Battle of the Dorms, Bass Hall residences, display their exuberance to beat Ross Hall with their theme "Home is Where the Heart Is."

In Memory

1956-1992

Mr. Steve Ward was born in August of 1956. He attended William Carey College, receiving a Bachelor of Arts degree in 1979 and a Master of Education degree in 1989. Mr. Ward was more than a student at Carey, however, serving on the College staff as Supervisor of Maintenance for nine years.

Mr. Ward had high expectations for his staff and work-study students, but was always there with them doing his part. He helped in the planning and planting of the Carey garden and restored a portion of the original iron fence that once surrounded the campus when it was Mississippi Woman's College. Mr. Ward also did little things to make Carey special. He made wreaths for the buildings at Christmas and planted trees from the forest on campus.

Mr. Ward served as a deacon at Rawls Springs Baptist Church and as a member of Gideons International. He was also a dedicated husband and father. His contribution to the College will continue through many of the campus plants and traditions of Christmas.

Carey Finishes Excavation in Israel

They were challenged, rewarded, and given an awareness of the task of Missions

A group from WCC returned before the fall of '93 from an excavation at Biblical Beth Shean in Israel. Dr. Daniel Browning, associate professor of religion at Carey, directed the program, which also included two weeks of intensive touring of Biblical sites prior to the excavation.

The archaeological work was centered on Tel Beth Shean, a mound of ruins built up over centuries of occupation, which contains the remains of successive cities, chiefly from the Old Testament period. Beth Shean is best known from the Bible as the site where Saul's body was hung on the walls (1 Samuel 31:10-12).

The Carey students worked primarily in remains of the Middle Bronze Age, dating 1750-1550 B.C. Macon Phillips, a religion major from Ellisville and the 1993-1994 SGA President at Carey, helped recover the remains of an infant buried in a pottery storage jar beneath a floor. Eric Wade, a religion major from California, uncovered the surfaces of several streets, each laid about a generation apart. Robert Wallace, a religion major from Indiana, uncovered an Early Bronze Age jar with an inscribed mark resembling an eye. The Carey program, in its third year, is designed to provide a variety of experiences. It was a rewarding experience resulting in new and different friends.

Rob Wallace; Macon Phillips, Professor Amihai Mazar of the Institute of Archaeology, Hebrew University of Jerusalem, Eric Wade, and Dr. Daniel Browning take a break for a picture on top of Tel Beth Shean.

Dr. Daniel C. Browning, Associate Professor of Religion at Carey, surveys the level of finds at the Tel Beth Shean Excavations in Israel.

Eric Wade shows how to flirt in the dirt with Charlotte of Germany at the Tel Beth Shean Excavations, Israel

Rob Wallace and Macon Phillips pose with the classical remains of Beth Shean, from the top of Tel Beth Shean.

Rob Wallace, taking an extra precaution not to break any findings, decides to dig with his hands through all the dirt.

With the ruins of the later city of Beth Shean down below, Dr. Browning poses for a picture on top of the mound which the early city of Beth Shean was built.

With his little shovel in hand, Macon Phillips is ready to get started digging.

Spring Splash held by

Baptist Student Union

During the last trimester the BSU had a Spring Splash to get students ready for the summer. It was a beautiful day and many students enjoyed the fun on the Slip-N-Slide even though there was a few skinned knees. Some of the guys picked on innocent females by throwing them onto the cold wet slide. Many participated in the volleyball game after everyone got soaked by the water hose.

Senior Ray Paterson and Tony Tims pull and push Amy Stovall on the slide.

Senior Laura Barnett serves the volleyball to the opposing team.

Senior Brian Tatum gives Resa Spann a helping hand.

The Miss William Carey College Pageant

The Night of Beauties could only be the night of the Miss Carey Pageant. This year we had four talented contestants.

The night started with Mistress of Ceremonies Shannon Steverson, who was Miss William Carey 1992, welcoming everyone. The Parade of Contestants started and the ladies were dressed in their casual ware. The Showtimers from Petal Middle School entertained the audience while the ladies got on their swimsuits. After the audience was entertained by Miss William Carey 1993, Miss Michelle Monguno. The talent competition was composed of two vocalists and two pianist. After Miss William Carey 1993's farewell address, Miss Rachel Wilson was Crowned.

Other entertainment of the night was composed of Melodi Griffth and a special showing of Miss Hattiesburg 1994, Darlene Dukes.

Rachel Wilson captures Miss William Carey College Crown.

Rachel Wilson is a 22 year old student at WCC. She is originally from Seminary, MS. In the pageant, Miss Wilson won the talent and swimsuit competition. She will be competing in the Miss Mississippi pageant this year representing William Carey College. The Annual Staff sends our best wishes with her.

1994 Carey's Crawfish Boil

Junior Jerel Wade is showing "how he eats a crawfish."

Freshman Angela Jones, Senior Jason Strange, and Junior Dawn Thomas sit in front of the cafeteria to socialize and eat.

The Crawfish Boil is a tradition at Carey. In 1994, it was a success. The tasteful "critters" were prepared by the cafeteria cooks, and the SGA members served portions of the crawfish to the students that attended. For many freshmen, the boil was the first time they were introduced to the succulent food. So many upperclassmen showed the freshmen how to peel and enjoy.

For the students that didn't attend because of one reason or another please come and join the festivities in 1995.

Freshman Tony Tims and Neil Marsh "dish out" crawfish for the students.

Senior Ken Nobles is apparently going back for seconds. ... or is it thirds?

WILLIAM CAREY COLLEGE HATTIESBURG, MISSISSIPPI

ALMA MATER

Carey College, we will love thee, loyal we will be;
And we will ever sing thy praises;
Hail, all hail to thee.
Lifting high the light of knowledge,
Answering the clarion call.
Thou hast made thy sons and daughters
Staunch crusaders all.

Thou has taught us love and honor.
Taught us truth and right.
While fitting every new crusader
With thine armor bright.
May the God, who made thee worthy,
Keep thee ever truly free;
May His Spirit, Alma Mater,
Ever dwell with thee.

Message from the President:

WILLIAM CAREY COLLEGE -- A LIVING INSTITUTION

Nineteenth century English philosopher Herbert Spencer said “a living thing is distinguished from a dead thing by the multiplicity of changes at any moment taking place in it.”

If that is our measure, William Carey College and its students are gloriously alive! As an institution we continue to change to meet the needs of graduates working in the 21st century, graduates whose studies indicate will change careers three times, will relocate three times and will face life altering changes in family relationships.

As individuals you are undergoing significant changes; changes as a result of greater independence and increased responsibilities; changes that may be irrevocable.

As we face change and realize that in many areas progress is impossible without change, we are also reminded that at William Carey College we know that we are rooted in the unchanging grace of Jesus Christ. Here we enjoy the opportunity to live and learn and grown in an environment based upon this sure unchanging truth.

Phi Beta Lamda Means Business

The members of Phi Beta Lamda (PBL) really went out of their way to make their club known this year. With the help of their sponsors, Mrs. Pam Jones and Mrs. Bonny Savelle, PBL hosted a chapel program in which they asked a Carey alumni Businessman to speak. PBL also sponsored an Italian Booth at Hub Fest in which they served spaghetti and drinks, they sold potatoes for their annual fundraiser, and they held their Christmas Tea where all faculty and staff were invited. Eleven Members went to State Convention for competition. Kirby Lackey and Mike Cilwik placed first in Economics and Accounting. Jennifer Hodge and Marco Zannoni took third place in Communications and Financing.

PBL officers for 1993-94 year are: President, Kirby Lackey Vice-President, Jennifer Hodge; Secretary, Valorie Lazenby; Treasurer, Marco Zannoni; Historian and Reporter Daphonie Moulder; Parliamentarian, Louise Stewart.

PBL members Daphonie Moulder, Kirby Lackey, and Jennifer Hodge show their Homecoming spirit by taking part in the Homecoming Parade.

Lady Saders

Even though the Lady Saders fought hard during the year, they finished out the season with 13 wins and 17 losses.

In their conference, they finished with 7 wins and 9 losses. Two of the Lady Saders were named All Conference players. They were senior guard, Stacy Agee and senior center Tracy Jones. This was the second year for Tracy Jones to be named All Conference. Stacy Agee was number one in the country in three point shooting. Freshman forward, Delana Lucas was ninth in the country in field percentage shooting.

Congratulations to the Lady Saders who received honors and best wishes to the team next year.

Ready to Play

The 1993 Soccer season was a very good season for the William Carey Crusaders. The crusaders began the season with an 8-0 run before they were defeated by Belhaven College. They finish the regular season with a 13-2-1 record. The crusaders lost to Belhaven College 1-0 in the district semi-finals. Belhaven went on to finish third in the NAIA National Tournament.

There were good performances throughout the season from freshman goal keeper Warren Steenkamp. Oleg Chickanov, who played in the midfield, led the team in points, with 8 goals and 11 assist. Freshman defender, Aaron Wilson played exceptionally well in the fullback position.

Chickanov was selected to the All Conference and All District first teams. He was also selected to the NAIA All South team ...

The Carey Crusaders

Playing the Field

The baseball team started the season off slowly because of the loss of a few key players. The team regrouped and finished the season with a strong winning streak. 18 of the last 21 games, the Sadlers won against ranked schools such as Livingston, Montevallo, Spring

Hill, and Mobile. The highlight win of the Sadlers season was against Ole Miss. The team lost out in the District 30 tournament. Next season, the team plans to be a contender with the addition of new players. GOOD LUCK!!!!

Crusader Spirit Found in SGA

This has been a fun and exciting year for the Student Government Association. Highlights have included activities such as the Mud Bowl, the annual Cookout at Paul B. Johnson Park, Fright Night, Homecoming, Spring Fever Week, and the ever popular Bowling at Burkett's, Off-campus Movies, and Midnight Breakfasts before finals.

SGA activities are great because they give all students—regardless of academic, racial, or religious orientation—an opportunity to be together and have loads of fun. And what would college be without fun? SGA plays a vital role in keeping the Crusader spirit alive.

Sophomore LaTonia Crockett was named President of the African American Cultural Society for the 1993-94 year.

AACS Provides at Carey

The African American Cultural Society (AACS) gives a feel of love, support, and friendship for its members. The club's purpose is to inform the school and community of the significant contributions of African Americans from the past to the present.

The club participated in the Homecoming festivities and won first place in decorations and third in overall club competition. Many of the club's members are serving on the SGA board and the Food Service Committees.

The AACS choir performed at the BSU's Celebration, chapel, and at an appreciation banquet. The chapel program was put on during February which is Black History month.

African American Cultural Society

The club was involved in the NAACP Voter Registration Drive and visited local nursing homes through out the year. As fund raisers they sold Valentine Mugs along with balloons and candy, and held a car wash.

The officers for the 1993-94 year were President- LaTonia Crockett;

Vice President- Lisa Magee; Secretary- Abena Beavers; Treasurer- LaTonya Bradford Head Choir Director- Nekhan Jones; Spiritual Advisor- Partick Larkin.
